

Revolutionary Claim; Inquiry as to the, of Samuel Morton; 114; unfavorable report, concurred in 396.

Inquiry as to claim of Mary Coe, for, 115; favorable report 397; resolution proposed 398; assented to and sent to senate 404; returned assented to 427.

Resolution that the treasurer pay to Ruth Griffith, widow of Samuel Griffith, the balance due on his, proposed and assented to 168; sent to senate 175.

Order that a select committee inquire as to expediency of reporting a bill that all, granted since July 4, 1836, to officers or soldiers, who served two or more years, shall take date from that day, proposed, amended and adopted 174.

Petition of Joseph Howard, for land for revolutionary services 128; unfavorable report 312.

Petition of Sarah Moore, widow of Nicholas R. Moore, 213; favorable report; resolution proposed 397; assented to 399; sent to senate 404.

Resolution that the committee on, report in favor of all the widows of revolutionary soldiers, that have applied for pensions this session, proposed 252; that order withdrawn; another order instructing the committee on the subject, proposed 255; a substitute for the latter order, proposed and adopted 256.

Order that those petitions which the committee on, have reported unfavorably upon, be referred back to the committee 256.

Resolution that the treasurer pay to Mary Coe, widow of Wm. Coe, the balance due her husband on his pension at time of his death, proposed, assented to 295; sent to senate 301; returned assented to 320.

Resolution for payment to Elizabeth Scott, of balance due on, of her late husband Samuel Scott, proposed, assented to and sent to senate 334; returned assented to 352.

Petition of Archibald Cook, for, 176; unfavorable report, concurred in 396.

Inquiry as to placing James Taylor on the roll, ordered 220; favorable report; resolution proposed, assented to and sent to senate 442; returned assented to 475.

Petition of Margaret Green, for support 219; referred to the committee on, 232; unfavorable report concurred in 396.

Petition of Mary Magdeline Kline, for, 245; favorable report; resolution proposed 397; assented to 399; sent to senate 404; returned assented to 505.