In Council of Safety Annapolis June the 29th 1776.

Capt^m Jas. Hindman.

Sir. Your favor of the 27th Instant of Mr. Anderson, the Council has laid before the Convention and therefore so far as respects Mr. Dickinson and others requires no answer from them. We have enclosed you an order on the C. S. Treasurer for $100. which we hope will be sufficient for the present the Council desire you will furnish them with an acct^s of the expenditure of the money they have already advanced you towards clothing the troops &c. they have determined not to advance any more money without acct^s being produced to them.

In Council of Safety, Annapolis June the 29th 1776

Capt^m James Hindman.

Sir. We have enclosed you an order on the Treasurer of the Eastern Shore for $100, which we hope will be sufficient for the present. The Council desire you will furnish them with an acct^s of the expenditure of the money already paid you towards clothing the troops, they have determined not to pay any more money to the Independent Captains before they produce their acct^s.

Sir.

Inclosed we send you the resolves of the Convention requiring the appearance of Messrs James Dickinson, Nathl. Martin, William Thomas and John Stevens before them on Tuesday next, with which you are desired to acquaint them. You will also be pleased to find any persons whose testimony you may think material against them, and also to order on any witnesses whose attendance they may desire. We are &c.

In Council of Safety.

Annapolis June 28th 1776.

To James Hindman Esq.

Talbot County

Sir.

We have this minute rec^d. of part^s of the 26th Instant, Mr. Sergeant Smith and are much concerned to hear the Small Pox has broke out among the party under your command. We think it most advisable that all the men under your command who have not had the Small Pox, should be immediately inoculated and desire you would apply to Doctor Craig for that purpose you will make the best bargain you can with the Doct^r. all necessary expenses will be paid by the Council in behalf of the Province.

To Dr. Craigs 29th June.
