We send you a list of the names of such persons as Congress have directed to be apprehended in the two counties of this province. Col. Gick has orders to march down to Somerset with him. You will be pleased to consult as also with Brigadier Genl. Hooper to whom also we have wrote on the occasion. Take with you such of the Militia as may be depended on also any regulars that may be in your neighborhood and let their number be equal to the resistance Brigadier Hooper Col Gick and yourself may expect to meet with. We hope all will be quiet by the time you get there. We are with esteem and regard
