N. 32. To the Committee of Observation for Baltimore County.

Gent^l The Man of War of what particular Tonnage we know not, and her Stoop or Schooner Tenders are now, we are certainly informed, up as high as South River. We are not certain, that they may get into this River; they have in Town a Provision Vessel they seized in the Bay, if there be any Vessels backed in your River, we would have your fall on
