

generous Men, that with alacrity and cheerful faith in the late Alliance to the Assistance and Protection of their Neighbours and Fellow-Citizens, has requested you with receipt of them, and present them likewise to their Battalions and Companies of your District, that appeared on that Occasion.

16th March 1778

We are for Yours

N^o: 62 To the Deputies for Maryland in Congress.

Gent^{rs} We are exceedingly anxious on Account of our Treasury, as it grows very low, and the Demands as you must be sensible, continues still great; you will therefore excuse our mentioning to you so often our Apprehension, that unless the Plates and Papers are furnished in a very short Time, the Treasury will be exhausted; and the Credit of the Province must sink.

Our Minute-Companies have writ to us for Copies of the Continental Regulations of Pay to their Troops, and as we are not provided with them, we request you will send them to
