

Articles not yet come to Hand, they are much wanted, our Independent Companies are very impatient for arms which we have not as yet been able to supply them with - our Gunsmiths go on very slowly, and we want small arms - very much, permit us to request you would remind the Congress of those sent for fitting out the Hornet and Wasp - we are anxious to have all the Powder secured we can, and should be glad to know what quantity Mose Willing & Morris sent, and whether any more is to be expected from that Quarter soon - We are satisfied so far as relates to the Province with the sale of the vessel called Wild-Dick, W. Luce seems not altogether pleased and talks that he had some claim, but we think he ought to be contented, all things considered - some Gold and Silver have already come in, and more might be got, had we Cash to exchange, we are in daily expectation of the Arrival of the Continental Money, as also of our Plates and Paper for the new Emission; we admire much at your Silence on that Head, and can account for it no otherwise than by taking it for granted that,
