Nothing Can Be Worse Than to Be Complacently High in a Boom. Use the Great Remedy, DR. J. J. MARTIN'S PULMONARY BALSAM.

A Positive Cure for Diarrhoea, &c. SPONDER'S INDIAN GUM SYRUP will positively cure any and every case of Diarrhoea, Dysentery and Summer Complaint, no matter how severe the case may be.

Count Moltke writes: The Russian peasants are extremely good-natured and peaceable. One sees the peaceful fighting of wrestling. They have no bell fighting or cock fights.

The Emperor rode down the whole front of the camp, one (German) mile and a half. The soldiers—seventy four battalions of 800 men—about 60,000 in all, unarm'd, with caps, bayonets fixed to their rifles, and caps lighted.

A correspondent of the Oakland Gazette says a son of his, while collecting minnows a few days ago, caught a young salmon four inches long, beautifully marked with three black bars across its bright salmon sides.

The New York Legislature has passed and Governor Robinson has signed an act punishing as a misdemeanor the offense of defacing natural scenery.

For the first time since the American Colonies became separate States of one Union, there is now a prospect of bringing together all the Governors of those States for the mutual interchange of official courtesies, the cultivation of more liberal ideas of the duties of the Republic.

The monotonous of South American revolutions is broken by a naval fight. Some weeks ago the iron ram Huascar, of the Peruvian navy, was seized by rebels at the harbor, and operated against some English vessels.

The unrefined half of the Postoffice Department requested not long ago the resignation of Postmaster Dowling, of Toledo. That gentleman, having a lively appreciation of the value of civil-service reform, flatly refused and wrote a letter in reply which was full of the most biting sarcasm.

England furnishes a happy illustration of the value of credit established on a sound basis, with no political doctors to meddle with finances. Last year the Bank of England held twenty-nine millions of gold, the largest amount ever in its vaults.

If the proposed gathering of politicians at White Sulphur Springs next month is for the purpose of uniting the South against the reelection of Speaker Randall, the projectors may as well make up their minds to be disappointed.

The Cumberland Civilian of Sunday, referring to the coal business of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, says: "Affairs on the canal have assumed a more gloomy aspect day by day during all of the past week. Only fifteen boats left this port yesterday, and there were not more than two or three boats in port last night.

With tolls at the present figure shippers think they can send by rail at better advantage than by canal if compelled to pay 50 cents or $1 to boatmen. It is evident, therefore, that tolls must be reduced in order to secure trade for the canal.

Le Journal du Haere, in a lengthy article on the transportation of fresh meats, deplors the fact that France has been so far behindhand in availing herself of its advantage. A Frenchman named Telier some two years ago conceived the idea of meat transportation.

That sink of iniquity, the Indian service, is undergoing another dredging under the direction of a commission appointed by Secretary Schurz, and the amount of fraud brought to the surface is ever greater than usual.

The decree dissolving the French Chamber of Deputies has taken effect, and in September the elections for a new Chamber will be held.

A large number of correspondents want to know how to subscribe to the new law of the Government of subscription from any national bank. It is up, stating what denominations you wish—you can have coupon bonds for $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

It is understood that Mr. Tilden has taken passage on the Cunard steamer Scythia to sail for Europe on the 18th of July, and it may be safely inferred therefore, that he agrees with the great majority of Democrats throughout the United States in thinking that it is hardly worth while to waste much energy in making an ex post facto war even on a de facto President.

The Director-General of the Statistical Department in India, Dr. W. W. Hunter, believes that he has discovered a method of predicting beforehand the years in which a failure of the crops and consequent famine are apt to occur in India. His investigations show that the great famines in Madras since the commencement of careful record in 1810 have occurred in the years during which there have been few spots on the sun, and that in such years the rainfall has been lowest in Madras.

From what reaches us at this distance it seems that the Turkish minister of war is a jobber, and that the army suffering from an overflow of corruption at Constantinople. The Sultan might profit by the example of his magnificent vassal, the Khedive. The Egyptian minister of war had stolen about $40,000,000, and his style of living rivaled the Khedive's own.

Says the Cecil Democrat: "They say that the past week has sealed the fate of the crop, that the fruit has been falling—falling, till now the promise of millions of a week ago lies fast on the ground. It is a pity that the weather was so good for a week ago, and that the weather was so good for a week ago, and that the weather was so good for a week ago."

The tramp industry like all other industries, seems to flourish in the States, as witness the two charities of the system, the Atlantic and Pacific, and Taylor, aged seventeen, originally of St. James Parish, La., then of the wide world, and now of the Albany Penitentiary, where he will remain for six months.

The true extent of the social change that has occurred in the South will not be known until the returns of the national census of 1880 come to be published, when it will be discovered that the whole South has made very decided progress in manufactures, mining, agriculture, railroads and education.

Ex-Congressman Hyman (colored), of North Carolina, has been disappointed again. When his term expired he applied for the Haytian mission, and from that eminence descended by easy stages until he was found at the Treasury Department begging for the place of messenger.

The Republican papers teem with accounts of the great reforms that are going to be made in the New York Custom House. The Secretary of the Treasury, boasts of what has been accomplished by the adoption of many recommendations of reform in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; and we suppose corresponding progress in remedying abuses has been made throughout his department.

—An effort has lately been made to cultivate vegetables among the barren sands of Sable Island. Shallow pits are dug in the sand and filled with clay brought from Nova Scotia. The only fresh water on the island, excepting that brought in the monthly boat from Halifax, is derived from the sea through holes dug in the sand, which acts as a sieve in separating the salt from the sea water.

Sales. PUBLIC SALE Shipley's Grist and Saw Mill AND "Hayfield" Farm. IN behalf of the owners, I will offer at Public Sale, on Tuesday, July 10, 1877, at 11 o'clock A. M., on the premises, the Grist and Saw Mill formerly known as "HIDDELY'S MILL," about one mile on the Public Road from Cross Store to the 19th mile-stone of the Frederick Pike to Triadelphia. It has lately been put and now is in thorough order, and with every useful appliance, and is in the enjoyment of a custom equal to its capacity. It has power to run two pairs of Burrs or a large Circular Saw to cut some 2500 feet of lumber per day, in the midst of a thrifty and thickly settled district, one of the best wheat growing in the State. There is a Dwelling on the premises, and about five Acres of Land will be attached.

103 ACRES. Improved by a DWELLING OF TEN ROOMS. Stable, Corn and other Outbuildings. The land is in a high state of cultivation as a field for stock, and is well adapted for growing under new plank fencing and with Orchards of excellent fruit and in full bearing.

TERMS—One-fourth CASH on day of sale, one-fourth within six months and the balance at the pleasure of the purchaser before the first of January, 1878, the credits to bear interest from the date of sale, and to be secured by notes and mortgage to my satisfaction.
