TWO SIDES TO THE QUESTION.

In conversation with a representative of the Baltimore News recently a well known Charles street real estate man, who is interested in the development of property along the main stem of the Baltimore and Ohio, from the Relay to Sykesville, is reported as having said that if the railroad would only pursue a more liberal policy toward the residents of that section he had no doubt that in five years there would be almost a continuous town from Baltimore thirty-five miles westward. "The people of that section," he continued, "are very energetic and all they want is half a chance from the railroad. Their commutation rates are cheap enough—in fact cheaper than of any other road out of the city—but their single fare and excursion rates are higher than they were before the war. Twenty-five years ago the round-trip fare to the Relay was 25 cents. To day it is 40 cents. Let the railroad help us out and we will show Baltimore what we can do. On the Washington branch a different policy has been adopted and a big jump taken by such towns as Laurel and Hyattsville in the past few years has been the result."

There's another side to this however, and a B. & O. official said to a TIMES man that if the people of Ellicott City, or anywhere else along the road, would show their enterprise by building the much talked-of new residences which would make the continuous town, he would guarantee to fill them with desirable tenants paying good rates of rent, or would find purchasers at handsome figures. City people want to live in this section and would be satisfied with railway facilities already existing but they can't find dwelling houses.

THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

W. Frank Tucker, of Baltimore, was in Annapolis Saturday looking into the high-license law in Carroll county, which, it is alleged, is not the act as passed by the Legislature. It is stated that when this bill was on its passage an amendment was adopted exempting Sykesville district, where local option now prevails, from the operation of the law, and that the bill as amended was not the one approved by the Governor.

John Bannon, who resides near Point of Rocks, Md., was killed at the new power house of the Washington and Georgetown Railroad, Washington, Saturday. Mr. Bannon was the son of Hugh Bannon, a well-known citizen of Montgomery county.

Dr. James H. Hill, a leading physician of Millington, Kent county, Md., was murdered Sunday morning by negroes.

Gorman Wouldn't Oppose Cleveland.

A press dispatch to the effect that the disciples of Hill favor a Western man as second choice for the Presidency states also: "There was an idea among politicians some time ago that Mr. Hill's forces might go over to Gorman when they saw that Mr. Hill could not be nominated, but this expectation is no longer entertained. It is said that Mr. Hill is not pleased with Mr. Gorman's failure to combine with him against Cleveland, and the recent action of Maryland Democrats favorable to Cleveland, taken upon motion of Mr. Gorman's lieutenants, is particularly displeasing to the New York Senator. This is believed to be what has decided the ultra-Hill men that they do not favor any other Eastern man if Hill fails.

Governor Pattison's Chances.

The friends of Governor Pattison, of Pennsylvania, claim that he stands an excellent chance for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in case the split in the New York Democracy is not healed. They assert that the Governor's record is without a flaw and that he is the greatest "vote-getter" in America.

Maryland Would be Proud.

Has Gorman read aright the signs of the times and concluded that Cleveland and Hill are impossibilities, and therefore decided to put himself in a position where the political lightning can play about his head in great splendor? Mr. Gorman may be looking into the future with the eyes of a seventh son of a seventh son. There are probably many people who do not take kindly to the Senator, but just the same, Maryland would be proud to have one of her sons occupy the Presidential chair.—Baltimore World.

"For several years," says John Park, of Beaver Creek, Minn., "during the winter, I have been troubled with a painful swelling of the feet, which physicians claimed was rheumatic gout. I was treated by some of our best physicians, and obtained but little, if any, relief, and used many so-called cures, without benefit. During the winter of 1887, when my feet were so swollen and inflamed that I could not wear my boots. I commenced using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application reduced the swelling and inflammation, and the use of one fifty cent bottle so completely relieved me, that I discontinued my canes and was able to get around all right and wear my boots." 50 cent bottle for sale by A. Fail to do Our Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Herbechter, Stevens' Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from Nervous Prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks' use of the Nervine for Headache, Nervous Prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by A. G. Daley, Ellicott City, Md. Trial bottle free.

DIED.

CAVEY.—At Gray's, Baltimore county, Md., Mrs. MARY E. CAVEY, wife of William Cavey Jr., in the 30th year of her age.

My soul, in exile, was out on life's sea
So burdened with sin and distress,
Till I heard a sweet voice say make me your choice
And I entered the "Heaven of rest!"
I have anchored my soul in the heaven of rest
I'll sail the wild seas no more,
The tempest may sweep o'er the wild stormy deep
Now in Jesus I am safe evermore.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. May Hughes Castle.

Death is never welcome in the household. It has been the unconquerable foe of the race, ever since the decree went forth in the garden of Eden, "Thou shalt surely die." But there are peculiar circumstances at times that make it inexpressibly sad. The death of the subject of this notice is of that character. A bride of only ten months, in her early womanhood, with life and its prospects bright and the most of life before her when viewed by mortal eyes, it seems as though the Great Reaper came most untimely. A devoted young husband is made inconsolable, a tender babe motherless, fond parents and brothers and sisters with crushed and bleeding hearts feel that a loved link in the family chain is so rudely broken. A host of relatives and friends mourn one who had so much to attract their love and admiration. But we must remember the promise of Him that never errs, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." And to those most sorely afflicted, we would say, it is but another strong incentive to live so we can meet her again beyond the parting and the meeting, in the better home where

"In the great cloister's stillness and seclusion
By guardian Angels led,
Safe from temptation, safe from sin's pollution,
She lives, whom we call dead."

A large number of sorrowing friends attended her funeral obsequies, conducted by Rev. B. G. W. Reed from the family residence, 1314 Argyle avenue, on the 23d inst., and dressed in her wedding robes, four young men that were attendants at her marriage assisted in laying her to rest in Loudon Park in that dreamless sleep that awaits all the living. ***

WATCHMAKING AND JEWELRY.

NO TIME LIKE THE PRESENT.

It is perfectly true that there is no time like the present. As a matter of fact, there is no time but the present. The past is the time that has been, the future is the time that is to be.

Those who are wise give to each day what belongs to it. That is the only true way to keep pace with the passage of time, unless indeed you happen to be without a watch, in which event,

U. JEANNERET,

OF ELLICOTT CITY,

can assist you to be on even terms with time to the second. The reliability of a watch is not always contingent upon its price. A good time-keeper is worth time and money.

Wind me up carefully,
Don't let me run down,
For I've been repaired
By the best man in town.
I feel like a new watch,
I'm polished and bright;
Correct time I'll keep
For I know I'm fixed right
