THE LOCAL NEWS FIELD

It Should Be Done. In nearly every neighborhood of late there has been more less concern occasioned by the presence of mad dogs and the consequent danger of hydrophobia. Numerous theories have been advanced looking to a means by which the danger may be reduced to the minimum, and also for the proper treatment of patients who may be so unfortunate as to become victims of disease. Dr. John W. Hebb, of the Third district, in speaking of the matter, said that he thought the legislature would do a philanthropic and proper thing to place a fund in one of the medical colleges in Baltimore to provide a chair for the Pasteur treatment for rabies. A state law, he also said, should be enacted compelling sheriffs to have killed at once all dogs supposed to have been bitten by The previous dog laws, have not, it seems, been favorably received by the Howard county canine owners. By the act of 1874 a special tax was placed on dogs, and the county was divided into constabular districts for the enforcement of the law, but it was soon found to be so obnoxious that the officers were comelled to give up the job, and the bushels of metallic tags were returned to the office of the county commissioner. The law still remains on the statute

A B. & O. Time Table in 1863. Mr. Charles Porter, one of the oldest employes of the road department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, while looking over some of his papers a short time ago found a time schedule of the B. and O.R. R., used by him in 1863. It shows a schedule of trains between Baltimore and Wheeling, as follows:

Mail train, No. 10, leaving Canden Station at 8.15 A. M., arriving in Wheeling the following evening at 4.20. Express train, No. 12, leaving Camden Station at 9 A. M., arriving in Wheeling at 4.40 the next P. M. These were the only two west bound trains. It also shows two corresponding east bound trains. Frederick had one extra train, leaving Camden Station at 4 30 P. M., arriving at destination at 8 P. M. Strange to say at that date Ellicott's Mills had four trains in addition to the

An Evening Pleasantly Spent. Mr. and Mrs. John U. O'Brien entertained a pleasant company Thursday evening. An elaborate supper was served and afterward dancing was the order of the evening. The guests, including a number from a distance, were: Miss Kavanaugh, of New York City; Misses Farran, Winters, Agner and Riley, of Baltimore; Miss Bunworth, the Misses Heavy and the Misses Butke, of Ellicott City; Messrs. Edward and Jas. Winters, Walter Seaman, George Kent, Ernest and Thomas O. Agnew, all of Baltimore: Mr. James Reynolds, of Hanover, Md.; Mr. John Tarlton, of Annapolis; Messrs. John Burke, John M. Senator Bruce has in charge a civil service law which he would like to see on the Statute books of Maryland. The Senator and a delegation from Baltimore arranged early in the week for a hearing before the Senate committee on judicial proceedings, of which Senator Rogers is chairman. Mr. Bruce's bill would require competitive examinations for appointments as members of the police and fire departments in Baltimore city other than police and fire commissioners, marshals, assistant marshals and chief engineers, deputies and employes of the clerks of court, register of wills and sheriff of Battimore city, and all subordinate employes of the several departments of the municipal government of Baltimore, including persons employ-Mrs. Harriet Buckingham, who has ed as laborers. The rules are to have can never rest on a body frail from dis-Alberton and from present prospects some of the fair ones there will be asked to forsake their homes for a cottage in improved condition.

Mrs. Harriet Buckingham, who has been seriously ill with the grip, is now in the sterile soil. When Concern the forsake their homes for a cottage in improved condition. subject to confirmation by the State Senate or a City Council, nor to heads of any principal departments in State or city. They will apply however to school teachers, who are already subjected to examinations before being allowed to cure it. So certain is this, that an offer teach. The proposed law would require double examination.

schools open longer. It does not appear what claim Garrett county has upon the school fund over and above every other county in the State. Garrett gets her share of the fund under the law apportioning it, and if she can't keep her schools going on what she receives, her county commissioners should make proper provision just as in any other county of the State. Senator Sloan has introduced a bill to schools for colored children and sources of income, providing for an apportionment of the State school tax appropriated reached a compromise on the assessment to colored schools different from that now in existence the sum to be at least

$125,600 each year, and to increase the State tax for schools to 12½ cents on each $100. The commission appointed by the legislature of 1892 to report on the present apportionment of school money was divided on the question embodied in Mr. Sloan's bill, as, in fact, upon changing the present law in any way. In the absence of unanimity on the part of the commission, the legislature had better

It is said that Senator Hayes is fighting for prominence as a Gubernatorial possibility, and that it is to impress his economical tendencies upon the people that many of his moves are made. One the Hayes bill fixed imprisonment as of these latest is a bill to repeal chapter 564 of the acts of 1892 and to re-enact the same. The act of 1892 gives to the registers of wills twenty-five percent, of all collateral inheritance taxes. In lieu thereof Mr. Hayes, bill gives them but a fruitful one during past legislative sessions, is up again. Arguments for and against Senator Evans' bills prohibiting child labor, were made before the Senate Committee on Judiciary Wednesday. Those opposing the measure were Messrs. David R. Carroll, Wm. Henry Baldwin, Jr., Carroll Baldwin, James A. Gary, James E. Hooper, Richard Cromwell and John R. Bland, all representing the Merchants and Manufacturers' Asso ciations, and Joseph B. Fairall and C. V Kahler, mill people. In favor of the measure were Jacob Schonfarber and Daniel T. Orem, of the Knights of Labor, bill and if the joint committee ratified and Charles Meyers and Samuel Hasson of the Federation of Labor. EDITORS AT THE CAPITAL.

-There was a notable gathering in the room of the Senate finance committee Thursday night of last week yet it was not accompanied with any noise. It was a gathering of thoughtful, intelli gent men, who, more than any others in fluence the sentiment of Maryland. The meeting was of the Democrati State Editors' Association. LEGISLATIVE NOTES A petition of 400 citizens of Woodsboro' district, Frederick county, for a local-option law for that county, has been referred to the committee on temperance. Senator Crothers, of Cecil county, has introduced a bill to provide for the enlargement of the State Normal School and for metal ceilings and other repairs thereto, (appropritaing $40,000 for the apportionment, get more for their white building, &c., and $1,500 for furniture.) schools proportionately than northern It has been suggested that if a free-bool and western counties where the colored measure is passed, the State can not afford the Normal School appropriation. it is claimed that the burden of a large Another bill introduced by Senator Crothers proposes the appointment of school trustees in May instead of in August.

The Governor last week informed the Senate that the semi-annual examination of the treasurer and comptroller alled for by the constitution had been regularly complied with, as also the act of 1890, providing for the counting and canceling of the bonds and certificates of the State and that the counting and examination of other securities purchased for the use of the sinking funds, had been regularly complied with, and transmitted a statement of the bonds, &c., counted and canceled. A bill requiring all physicians and surgeons in Maryland to be registered s in the hands of Delegate Taylor, of Baltimore city. The Carroll county liquor license bill has passed both houses and gone to the Governor. It authorizes the issue of licenses for one month instead of the limit of three months, as at present. There is no requirement to citizenship in Carroll county or in the State of Maryland. Any citizen of the United States may take out license. The fine for violation is reduced from $200 to $160. At present license is forfeited on the second violation. The new bill revokes on the third violation. Carroll is one of the counties having high li cense, the rate being $200 to $350, of which one-fourth goes to the State and the remainder to the public-school fund of the county.

The Baltimore Sun commends the activity of the present legislature as superior to that of two years ago and cites that on Tuesday eight bills went to the Governor, one had been signed by him some time back and a large number of others were nearly ready. Last session the first bill went to the Governor on February 2. Delegate Selby, of Carroll county, will introduce a bill to incorporate the town of Mount Airy.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. Whereas, at the January session, 1892 of the General Assembly of Maryland, an Amend-Bill, embodying the Article of Section as the same will stand when amended, was passed in the manner and form prescribed by the Constitution.

And, Whereas, the Governor, as required by Section one of Article fourteen of the Constitution, did, on the nineteenth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, issue his proclamation, containing the proposed amendment in full and submitting it to a full vote of the people of the State at the general election then next coming. which proclamation was published in at least two newspapers in each county and in three two newspapers in each county and in three newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, once a week for at least three months preceding the general election.

And Whereas, at a general election held in this State on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the said eighteen hundred and ninety three, the said amendment was voted upon by the people, and from the returns of such election made to the Governor in the form required by law, giving the vote "For" or "Against" the proposed amendment, it ap-pears that in the vote on the amendment known as chapter 313 of the Acts of the General known as chapter [13] of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1822, entitled: An Act to add an additional section to Article four of the Constitution of this State.

There were cast "For" sixteen thousand five hundred and seven votes, and "Against" eight thousand, five hundred and seventy four votes, and the amendment was adopted.

And, Whereas, the said section, one of Article fourteen of the Constitution, further proves that "fit is shall appear to the Covernor. Article fourteen of the Constitution, further proves that "if it shall appear to the Governor that a majority of the votes east at said election on said amendment, or amendments, severally, were east in favor thereof, the Governor shall, by his proclamation, declare the said amendment, or amendments, having the said amendment, or amendments, having received said majority of votes, to have been adopted by the people of Maryland as a part of the Constitution thereof."

Now, Therefore, I, Frank Brown, Governor of Maryland, do hereby proclaim and declare that the admendment herein named, having received a majority of all the votes cast at said election, has been adopted by the people of Maryland as a part of the Constitution thereof, and henceforth said amendment shall be a part of the Constitution.
