THE PENALTY OF 1888.

That the people are very much dissatisfied at the present condition of national affairs no one can deny. That this dissatisfaction has existed ever since tariff reform was revived as an issue seven years ago, is likewise true.

After the preliminary agitation of the tariff question had brought the promise of moderate relief in the Mills bill, the public, with characteristic fickleness, relaxed its efforts and the Republicans were restored to power. Their first act was to lash their political and economic adversaries to impotent fury by the passage of the McKinley tariff law. They likewise enacted laws providing extravagant appropriations of public moneys for many years to come. These appropriations were for pensions, military and naval equipment and public improvements. The laws were so made that repeal for years would be impossible, and the annual sums they required were intended to be of such magnitude that the tariff duties, which yield the government's revenue, could not be, as they thought, appreciably reduced.

Thus far the Republicans were masters of the situation. There was no one to successfully resist them, for they controlled every branch of government, and their conspiracy to make a high tariff a necessity indefinitely, was not clearly apparent to the public then, and is hardly recognized by the masses even now, although exposed by Senator Gorman two years ago.

But the Republicans were still not satisfied. Flushed by their success in the particulars named, they thought to take one more step, not only to perpetuate their economic idea of a high tariff, but likewise to perpetuate the rule of their party by the passage of the Force Bill. Blind to their shrewdness in the one particular, the country was awakened to the significance of the bill which was to put a bayonet behind every ballot if necessary thus to deposit it for the Republican party. Enough Senatorial patriots were mustered to follow Senator Gorman's lead to victory in that notable struggle which alone vindicated the necessity in popular government of the conservatism for which the United States Senate periodically suffers intolerant abuse.

The country was saved from the Force Bill. But nothing could save it from the laws which were made to perpetuate heavy expenditures and a consequent high tariff. The country is now paying the penalty of its remissness in 1888 when it allowed the Republicans to come back to power. It is useless to fume and fret. The feverish haste to be rid of the pests devised by our enemies should not have been so intermittent in the past. The Democratic Waterloo of six years ago sent our party back decidedly more than six years. What is needed now is cool, sober judgment to prevent more mistakes which may irreparably harm us. The firebrand fools who would add to the lamentable confusion in our party by fomenting internal dissension, when harmony is vitally necessary, should be thrown from the battlements. Their guns turned upon their fellow comrades are more destructive than those of the enemy.

A singular feature of the present confusion wherein so many professing Democrats have ceased to direct their fire against the enemy and seek only to destroy their own people, is in the diverse character of the assaults made upon the Democratic leaders. The Baltimore Sun attacks Senator Gorman, the New York Sun attacks President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle, the Springfield Republican (Mugwump) scores the party generally. So none of the feverish malcontents agree. They all know that something hurts them, and after the fashion of tortured animals or suffering children, they seek to relieve their feelings on the most readily accessible object.

They are like babies afflicted with some disorder requiring medical skill. The doctors are trying to reach the seat of the derangement but the patients are peevish and retard the physician's progress. Of course while babies exist we may expect every phase of the baby act. It is only unfortunate that the infantile behavior of the Baltimore Sun bears the analogy beyond the walls of the party nursery.

SENATORS CALLED THIEVES.

The Baltimore Sun on Saturday last varied its Mugwumpian melody from vicious attacks upon Senator Gorman in particular to a diatribe against the Senate in general. After betraying its malevolent asininity in its previous braying against Senator Gorman, and having been laughed at as a very foolish ass indeed, The Sun naturally felt sore. The Senate showed its disposition to trust Senator Gorman rather than the counsellors from whom The Sun took its cue. Indeed the Senate and the administration too saw fit to call upon Senator Gorman to help the party and the government out of difficulty, and The Sun's only way to get even now is to abuse the entire Senate. It has not yet seen its way to turn against the administration upon which it has been fawning.

The Sun's abuse of the Senate is as small as could be expected from such a pusillanimous source. Its dispatch, published Saturday, is intended to create prejudice in the rural districts by parading alleged statistics as to the cost of maintaining the Senate. Every one knows that it does cost a vast sum to conduct this great government of nearly 70,000,000 people. Take the Executive Department for instance. To maintain the dignity of his place and the standing of the United States among the nations of the earth every intelligent person knows that $50,000 per annum is not too large a salary for the President, and it may indeed be questioned that it is sufficient. The Sun goes on to show that each Senator costs the country $12,000 per annum. Of course where The Sun has a political score to pay it can no longer be considered reliable, but, if the figure given is correct, we are surprised that it is so small. It must be remembered that this figure represents not only the Senator's salary of $5,000 but the cost of committee rooms, clerks, traveling expenses, and all the facilities requisite for the dispatch of business as well. If The Sun wanted to maintain a case against the Senators, it should have made its figures larger, say twenty or thirty thousand. Even then it would appear that the public service is cheaper than first class service in private business. The general counsel or president of a big private corporation, for example, can always command anywhere from ten to fifty thousand dollars a year.

The Sun says that our Congress is more expensive than the parliaments of foreign countries. But then the parliaments of many of these countries are comparatively unimportant factors of the government, as compared with the royal branch, the king or czar who may levy a tribute of millions for his maintenance. This free government pays no millions to a king, and may well afford even better salaries than at present for the best talent that can be induced to enter our democratic law-making branch of Government, the great Congress of the United States. If the government paid half as well for brains as private business enterprises, the public would then get the benefit of talent which at present so frequently declines to sacrifice the alluring prosperity of private pursuits.

The Sun indiscriminately makes the Senators all out a gang of thieves and robbers. Here are some of its choice phrases: "But it is the Senate, the American House of Lords, which bears the palm for expenditures in its own behalf so outrageous and indefensible that it seems almost incredible for the men who are plunging their hands so deep in the public pocket to show themselves with uncovered faces." "A Senator who dies must, like an Egyptian king, be embalmed at an expense ranging from fifty to a hundred dollars." "The government is even called upon to pay the ministers who say prayers. Well, prayers for some of them ought to come high." "Many thousands of dollars are spent every year in the summer junkets of Senators, gotten up under the guise of special committees to make bogus inquiries and investigations." "A very few years since it was found there was not space in the Capitol for Senators. The House was deluded into giving its consent to the purchase of the Maltby building, a large apartment house under the shadow of the Capitol. The promise was held out to the House that it should share in the additional accommodations. But the House never got a foothold in the building. By an act of grand larceny unparalleled the Senate took absolutely possession, and when the House growled and grumbled, simply said, 'What are you going to do about it?'" etc., etc.

To read the sentences quoted is sufficient. The writer did not have sense enough to conceal his animus, and hence they contain their own answer.

A DAMAGING CONFESSION.

The following is from the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday. It speaks for itself, and no comment from us is necessary to show the Sun's political position. The Sun in referring to the attacks of the Republicans upon the Democratic party in the Senate Monday, says:

"After the very pointed and very just criticism by Mr. Platt, Mr. Gallinger threw in a few more crumbs of comfort by reading extracts from The Sun and other leading papers of the country on the shameless outrage of their conduct.

"The Republicans were more tantalizing than ever today, and as all is fair in politics who can blame them. Irony, sneers and invective were hurled upon the Democratic side; constant demands for a quorum were made, trifling amendments proposed and continued calls made for the yeas and nays. The Republicans were full of spirit and vim. How could they be otherwise? The Democrats were weary, haggard and listless. How could they be otherwise? Better pull down the pillars of the temple than for this to continue."

Here's a high political standard for you! Here's the Sun's morality! Platt and Gallinger, the bitterest Republicans in the Senate, hand in hand with the Baltimore Sun in its war on Democrats. The Sun proclaiming that "all is fair in politics," and urging that "the pillars of the temple," the Democratic temple of course, be pulled down, if The Sun's faction cannot control. It's the old policy of the kicker. He must be admitted to the party counsels, not to be bound by them, but to beat the party at the polls if he can't have his way at the primaries. It is rule or ruin.

At any rate The Sun is to be thanked for its open confession. It assists honest men to an understanding of its true position. But it is a damaging confession.

AN OCCASIONAL GRAIN OF TRUTH.

Even the mendacious Baltimore Sun at times inadvertently tells the truth. It's policy is that of misrepresentation, but in the work of garbling its press dispatches, some damaging statements of fact escape the eyes of its editors. For instance a Washington dispatch of recent date, in the Sun, says:

"It was noticeable that the Democrats, with the exception of Senator Mills stood by the committee recommendations on all votes. This practically solid vote on the Democratic side has given the Republicans no little concern, as they have been hopeful of creating division among the Democrats. Some of them predict that the cohesion so far displayed will not continue, but the best information obtainable at this time indicates that, however unsatisfactory the bill is to a number of the Democrats, it will continue for the present at least to receive the voting support of all Democratic Senators, with possibly one or two exceptions."

Here is another statement that crept into a Sun Washington dispatch: "It has been the discord among the Democrats that has encouraged the Republicans in the hope that the tariff bill might be defeated. Deprived of this hope, they will not, it is believed, maintain the struggle much longer."

For the unity secured, the party and the country have to thank Senator Gorman. The truth will come out even in the Sun's own columns, despite its efforts at suppression. The Sun will have to train its staff more thoroughly before it can make all adepts in lying.

What a low estimate the Baltimore Sun must place upon popular intelligence! It denounces certain Democrats as advocating tariff duties for their protective effect. Yet when to secure revenue it is proposed that taxes be laid upon commodities not raised or produced in this country, there being therefore nothing protective in the tax, still the Sun reviles. This was the case in the banana schedule over which the Sun wailed at length some time ago. Monday it took another tack and gave half a column to boracic acid, chromic acid, citric acid, tannic acid, tartaric acid, cologne and toilet waters! For goodness' sake! If $600,000,000 has to be raised to run the government isn't it better to tax the cologne and toilet waters with which the silk-stocking aristocrats and dudes of St. Paul street scent themselves, rather than the asafetida and drugs that we common people have to use? So far as the boracic, tartaric and other acids are concerned, we don't know anything about them except that we'd rather have them taxed than bologna sausages and ipecac. But you can't please the Sun. It doesn't want to be pleased. It's looking for grievances. So leave it to the generation of its mephitic vapors!

The Baltimore Sun has been known to take four positions on the same subject within three months. A member of the Maryland Senate a few years ago convulsed that body by reading a dozen or so editorials taken from the Sun on one side of a pending measure and then reading a like number, from the same source, but against the measure. At the present time it will prove amusing and instructive to any one to watch The Sun's course upon any given question closely and if the changes noted are not kaleidoscopic or at least chameleonic, we have a nice brand-new hat for the observer. The difficulty with the Sun is that it has too many editors. It's the old story of numerous cooks and a spoiled broth. With a judicious centralization of authority The Sun could be made a magnificent paper. By the way there's an excellent field in Baltimore just now for a reliable Democratic morning daily.

The Senators who work by fits and starts, and even then exhaust themselves mainly in shouting what good Democrats they are, or in attacking the fidelity of party colleagues, have a chance to prove their Democracy by remaining at their posts in the Senate while the tariff bill is pending. But already the irascible Mills, of Texas, has permanently absented himself, and a dozen or more of the Simon Pure class are fagging out, despite the call issued by Senator Gorman, as chairman of the caucus, urging attendance and the maintenance of a quorum. It's a good thing Senator Gorman has been able to be on hand and work unremittingly. It gives the Baltimore Sun a vent for its abuse. Still the Sun can find a vent even when Mr. Gorman is away. It followed him to New York Saturday and follows him even to the sick-chamber. Don't obstruct that vent! We don't want the inflated Sun to bust.

And now the Baltimore Sun says: "Expediency counsels a fair and honorable compromise, but there is no true expediency in the abject abandonment of a great and just cause. If any tariff reform, bill worthy of the name, providing for any considerable reduction in the yearly tribute now levied by the protected interests on the industry and thrift of the whole people, can be passed, let us have it, and in short order." Well, will some tariff or other expert tell us where the Sun does stand? It is breaking even its own acrobatic record.

For sick headache and all other conditions resulting from constipation, go by the book on Beecham's pills.

Book free, pills 25c. At drugstores; or write to B F Allen Co, 365 Canal st, New York.

Hasn't it found out yet that Senator Gorman has these many weeks been doing the work which it for the first time suggests? Truly none are so blind as those who will not see.

We note that the Baltimore Sun is evincing marked symptoms of Populism. One of the planks of the Populist convention in 1892 was the election of United States Senators by popular vote. General Coxey and his men are Populists. Can it be that the erratic Ohio chieftain, having failed to take Washington by storm, will nevertheless speed the glad tidings back to the Buckeye State that he has fair prospects of capturing Baltimore, and that in Maryland, with The Sun in its ranks, Coxeyism will go marching on?

Senator Gorman's health, which sustained impairment from his arduous labors in the memorable fight against the Force Bill, has again been menaced by the labors which Mr. Gorman's party colleagues have placed upon him of uniting the Democratic Senators upon tariff legislation. We sincerely hope that in a day or two Mr. Gorman will be quite himself. His colleagues should sustain him at the present time with extra vigilance and diligence.

The New York Recorder has an editorial at some length assuming to show that Senator Hill's recent conduct has so alienated his party associates as to rule him out of the Presidential race for all time to come. The Recorder thinks the party will in 1896 very likely turn to Senator Gorman to save it from the extremities in which it will then be.

The Baltimore Sun celebrated its 57th anniversay on May 17. The Sun is not a whit behind the great dailies of the country in all its appointments. It has dared not to publish a Sunday edition, a crowning virtue in the eyes of a great many good people.

The Baltimorean has entered upon its 23rd year. The paper is the ideal city weekly and occupies a field not easily filled except through industry and such qualities of mind and heart as must attract attention in the home life of the people.

St. John's College Board.

At the meeting of the board of visiting governors of St. John's college, Annapolis, held on the 25th ult. the following were elected as new members of that body, viz: Hon. Hattersly W. Talbott, of Rockville, Md., state senator for Montgomery county; Hon. J. G. Rogers, of Ellicott City, Md., state senator for Howard county, and Henry Williams, Esq., of Baltimore, Md., president of the Weems Line of steamships. The first two are alumni of the college, and have already manifested much interest in the welfare of the institution.

"Mary," said Farmer Flint at the breakfast table as he asked for a second cup of coffee, "I've made a discovery."

"Well, Cyrus, you're about the last one I'd expect of such a thing, but what is it?"

"I have found that the heavy end of a match is its light end," responded Cyrus with a grin that would have adorned a skull.

Mary looked disgusted, but with an air of triumph quickly retorted, "I've got a discovery too, Cyrus. It was made by Dr. R. V. Pierce, and is called a 'Golden Medical Discovery.' It drives away blotches and pimples, purifies the blood, tones up the system and makes one feel brand-new. Why, it cured Cousin Ben who had Consumption and was almost reduced to a skeleton. Before his wife began to use it she was a pale, sickly thing, but look at her; she's rosy-cheeked and healthy, and weighs 165 pounds. That, Cyrus, is a discovery that's worth mentioning."

Young or middle-aged men, suffering from premature decline of power, however induced, speedily and radically cured. Illustrated book sent securely sealed for 10 cents in stamps. World's Dispensary Medical Association; Buffalo, N. Y.

New Jersey Enamel Paint

MIXED READY FOR USE.
BEEN IN THE MARKET 25 YEARS.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.
Annapolis, March 29, 1888.
Mr. C. P. Knight, Baltimore, Md.:
DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 24th inst., requesting me to express my opinion of the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company. More than six years ago I bought the above paint to paint my dwelling at Catonsville, Baltimore county, Maryland, and and it is with unfeigned pleasure I can say it is in every respect all you claim for it. Yours truly,
JOHN HUBNER.

OFFICE OF "MARYLAND JOURNAL."
Towson, March 12th, 1891.
Mr. C. P. Knight.
MY DEAR SIR:—In reply to your inquiry I would state that I had my dwelling painted with your New Jersey Enamel Paint in 1876, and not again until 1892, when New Jersey Enamel Paint was again spread upon it. It thus stood for a period of 16 years without any paint being put upon it. Paint that will stand the effects of the elements sixteen years must surely have virtue in it.
Yours truly,
WM. H. RUBY.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Baltimore, Md.:
DEAR SIR:—I sent you in July, 1887, an order for about fifty gallons Ready Mixed New Jersey Enamel Paint for painting blinds here, and have been so well pleased with it that I hand you herewith an order for nearly as much more for both inside and outside work. The cost is moderate, and I prefer it to other paints I have used at a higher price. It affords me pleasure to recommend it to others. Respectfully yours,
L. M. BLACKFORD.

Baltimore, Nov. 27th, 1891.
Mr. Charles P. Knight, Agent for New Jersey Enamel Paint Co., Baltimore, Md.:
DEAR Sir:—In the fall and winter of 1892 I used your PAINT very extensively at my country place, "Dunmore," near Catonsville, on my dwelling, both inside and outside, on my Overseer's house, stable, carriage house and cow house, and I take pleasure in stating that the paint, both in color and durability, has come up to my expectations and proved entirely satisfactory.
Yours very truly,

DEAR SIR:—I have used the Liquid Enamel Paint for painting my country house in Augusta county, Va., both inside and outside, and can recommend its use as entirely satisfactory. It has answered the VERY BEST PURPOSES. Yours truly,
W. T. RICHARDSON.

ARMSTRONG CATOR & CO, WHOLESALE MILLINERS.
Baltimore, 1881.
Mr. C. P. Knight, Sole General Agent N. J. E. Paint Co., Baltimore:
DEAR SIR:—In January, 1878, our store was painted with the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the N. J. Enamel Paint Company. We used tints that generally show the effects of exposure, but the paint has retained its color, gloss and freshness. We shall take pleasure in using it in future.
Yours truly,
ARMSTRONG, CATOR & CO.

FROM ST. MARY'S INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS.
Near Baltimore, Md.
Mr. C. P. Knight:
DEAR SIR:—I take great pleasure in acknowledging that the paint you sold us was of a superior quality. We used four coats on a whitewashed wall, which produced most admirable effect. We think it is a very cheap article, and cheerfully lend you our testimonial to spread far and near, to testify to the public of what we know to be to their advantage when they want to have their walls and woodwork, etc., made beautiful at a comparatively small cost. It is the cheapest and most beautiful and durable paint, we believe, extant. Wishing the Enamel Paint all the success it justly deserves, I am.
Yours respectfully,
BROTHER ALEXIUS, Director.

BALTIMORE "AMERICAN."
Baltimore, June 1, 1889.
Mr. C. P. Knight:
DEAR SIR:—The Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company has given me entire satisfaction. My country residence and all outbuildings at "Nacirema"—and also The American office, on which hundreds of gallons were applied—were greatly admired by the many guests entertained by me on the 15th of May. Yours truly,
FELIX AGNUS.

Proffitt's Station, Va., July 8, 1891.
C. P. Knight, Esq., 102 South St, Baltimore, Md:
DEAR SIR:—Owing to sickness in my family my painting was delayed several months. The job is now complete, and the Liquid Enamel Paint for which you are the General Agent is entirely satisfactory, coming fully up to your representations, both in beauty of finish and in covering qualities. In fact, it spread so wonderfully I have several cans left over my estimate. I purchased some paint in Charlottesville at a much higher price, and as compared with yours I consider it greatly inferior. You are at liberty to refer to me at any time. Yours truly,
JOHN MINOR.

DEFORD & CO., TANNERS OF OAK SLAUGHTER SOLE LEATHER AND BUTTS.
Office Calvert and Lombard Sts., Baltimore, Dec. 18, 1889.
C. P. Knight, Esq., Baltimore:
It gives us great pleasure to certify to the good qualities of your Liquid Enamel Paint, made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Co. After using the old style paint for a number of years, we were induced to try your paint by those who had used it. We have now been using it some six or seven years, both for inside and outside work, and it gives entire satisfaction. Yours respectfully,
DEFORD & Co.

Houston, Halifax Co., Va., Nov. 11, 1891.
C. P. Knight, Esq., Gen. Agent, Baltimore, Md.:
DEAR SIR:—I am entirely satisfied, so far, with the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Co., which I bought of you the past summer, and if it proves to be durable and holds well its color, which it now proves to do, I prefer it to any paint I ever used. It has a good body, and dries with a beautiful glossy finish, and it covers more surface than you claim for it. My estimate according to you rule, left me enough, after painting my house, to give two coats to the entire fence around my yard, which is quite a large one. Respectfully yours,
JOHN W. RIELY

THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK, JOHN S. GILMAN, President.
Baltimore, August 22, 1887.
Mr. C. P. Knight:
DEAR SIR:—The paint you supplied me with on several occasions has given such excellent satisfaction that I propose using it again in painting my dwelling house this season, and will thank you to send me, through mail, one of your sample cards. Very truly yours,
JOHN S. GILMAN.

ACADEMY OF VISITATION.

Mr. C. P. Knight:
DEAR SIR:—It will no doubt be gratifying to you to hear, in reply to your letter just received, that the New Jersey Enamel Paint purchased from you last April has given us entire satisfaction, both as to its beauty and quality. Our house has been much admired, and we trust that others who, like ourselves, desire to be economical, may use the New Jersey Enamel Paint. Yours respectfully,

LEROY ROPER & SON.

Greenwood Depot, Albemarle Co., Va., November 7, 1891.
Mr. C. P. Knight, Gen. Agent, Baltimore, Md.:
DEAR SIR:—The Liquid New Jersey Enamel Paint (Nos. 7 and 28) which I used in painting the outside of my house last July, has proved to be entirely satisfactory. They are, beyond comparison, the best paints I have ever used. The painter whom I employed, an expert in his business, is of the same opinion. I am, very truly yours.
H. ROBERTSON.

HARFORD NATIONAL BANK, EDWIN H. WEBSTER, President: WM. HINES, Cashier Bel Air, Md.
Mr. C. P. Knight, Esq., Baltimore, Md.:
DEAR SIR:—The New Jersey Enamel Paint has been exclusively used by me for the past ten or twelve years in considerable quantities, both on my dwellings and outbuildings, and it has given entire satisfaction. About six years ago, whilst Collector of Customs for Baltimore, I had the Custom House throughout painted with the New Jersey Enamel Paint; the work, when finished, was much admired, and gave general satisfaction to the Government officials and the public. I consider it an excellent paint and take great pleasure in recommending its general use.
Yours truly,
EDWIN H. WEBSTER.

FROM THE CASHIER OF FARMERS AND MERCHANTS' NATIONAL BANK.
Baltimore, May 22, 1890.
In the spring of 1887 I painted the dwelling of my son in King and Queen Co., Virginia, with paint purchased of Mr. Chas. P. Knight, Baltimore, and manufactured by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Co. It has given entire satisfaction, wearing well and retaining its color to a remarkable degree. I consider it most excellent and durable paint.
CHAS. T. CRANE.

Beach Haven, N. J., March 9, 1891.
C. P. Knight:
RESPECTED FRIEND:—The Liquid Enamel Paint put upon the Engliside Hotel last fall has stood the severe test of the seashore air, with appearance and color unimpaired. And my opinion is that it is the best for seashore houses I have ever seen. I therefore take pleasure in recommending it especially for seashore houses or elsewhere, believing that any paint that can successfully withstand the peculiar atmosphere of the seashore must possess all the requisite qualities of a first-class paint. Respectfully,
ROBERT B. ENGLE.
