LET US REASON TOGETHER.

It is not our intention to go into a fulsome laudation of Mr. Gorman in his attitude on the tariff question. He does not need it. He does not care for it. The Baltimore Sun in its mad pursuit of Mr. Gorman has transcended the proprieties of journalism. What the London Times is to England so The Sun is to Maryland, even extending its influence far beyond the borders of our State. It was The Sun's business to study the exact surroundings of Mr. Gorman and see if there wasn't at least some delicacy in his situation or a tithe of honesty in his professions and intentions. Instead of that The Sun has taken dishonorable advantage of Mr. Gorman's peculiar relations to the Senate, the Democratic party and the county at large and has succeeded in poisoning the minds of probably a majority of the Democrats in this State to the extent that Mr. Gorman is full of perfidy, and, instead of acting for the best and most far-reaching interests of the party, is wholly the creature of trusts.

To the minds of many Mr. Gorman sees much farther than The Sun and is acting out his convictions as to the line of his duty in so grave a complication.

The Baltimore Sun, in common with a good many other able tariff reform journals of the country has been insisting upon what Mr. Gorman has regarded as an impossibility.

The Port Tobacco Times states the situation truthfully and well when it says:

So overwhelming was the Democratic majority of the House that the statesmen who were responsible for the * * Wilson bill, could well afford to ignore the protests of the seventeen Democrats that actually voted against it, as well as many more that would have done so had they deemed it necessary for its defeat. But in the Senate the matter was entirely different. There the Democrats had but one vote they could afford to lose, and that was lost from the beginning by the flat refusal of Senator Hill to vote for the bill with the income tax in it. The Democrats have but 44 votes in the Senate, and 43 affirmative votes was absolutely necessary to the passage of the bill. Therefore, with the income tax retained, the remainder of the bill had to be so framed as to retain every Democratic vote.

This was a most difficult task, as every body recognized. The two Louisiana Senators have made no hesitation in saying that they would not vote for the bill unless a duty were placed on sugar. The New Jersey Senators were known to demand the modification of the bill in that and other respects as the condition of their support; while one Democratic Senator from New York and the Democratic Senator from Ohio were recognized as among those demanding amendments. The two Senators from Alabama, impelled by the interests of their constituents, were open in their demands for the reinstatement of the duty on iron ore and soft coal; while the Senators from West Virginia and Maryland, in which the mining of soft coal is a prominent and valuable industry, regarded their responsibilities as representatives too gravely to consent to the new fangled notion of putting soft coal on the free list, with no other practical result than to deprive the Government of much needed revenue to further enrich certain New York and Boston capitalists, who own inexhaustible coal mines in Nova Scotia.

When, therefore, it is recognized that the Wilson bill had already repelled more than a score of true Democrats in the House, and that the Democratic Senators had not another vote to lose, the real difficulty that confronted them becomes apparent to every honest man. In this emergency a caucus of Senate Democrats was called and a certain line of amendments were agreed upon as the basis of the requisite united support. It was there determined that light revenue duties should be placed upon iron ore, coal and sugar, and Senator Jones of the finance committee aided by Senator Gorman, the chairman of the caucus, and other prominent Democrats with practical knowledge of tariff matters, undertook to formulate the necessary amendments to the bill.

The work was a difficult and most la...ious one, but after weeks of great ...r and with the exercise of much ...ment and diplomacy, the present ...e bill was formulated, upon which the 44 Democratic Senators agreed ...d as a unit and thereby secure ...sage. This is really a most ex... bill, strictly in conformity with ...ritten and unwritten law of the ...ocratic party. It places only about ...the duty on either coal or iron ore ...e great articles of dispute—as those ...ntained in both the Walker tariff of ...884 and the Mills bill of 1888, and the very lowest duty on sugar that the Louisiana Senators would accept.

This amended bill was formulated with the full knowledge and approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and the President, and notwithstanding the vacillation of the President, under circumstances variously understood, the Secretary of the Treasury still remains firm and steadfast in his support of the bill.

MR. ROGERS ENDORSED.

Two Democratic conventions were held at Towson Monday. One elected delegates to the second congressional district nominating convention, which will meet at Towson, October 2, and the other elected delegates to the Fifth congressional district convention, which will meet at Catonsville, September 5.

The latter convention was composed of delegates from the First and Thirteenth districts of Baltimore county, and a notable part of the proceedings was the endorsement of State Senator John G. Rogers, of Howard county, for nomination for the long term and Mr. George S. Keiffer, of Baltimore county, for the short term.

Both conventions adopted resolutions endorsing the Wilson tariff bill and Grover Cleveland

THE WANE OF COXEYISM.

The Coxeyites who had gathered in Virginia opposite Washington to the number of nearly 2,000 are receiving special attention from the authorities of both Virginia and Washington. They are being regularly shipped West. The Coxey movement was intended to dignify these fellows to a plane above the ordinary tramp, but all indications point to the fact that instead of being honestly seeking work they prefer to depend upon the bounty of hardworking farmers for a square meal. The original idea of Coxey was more than a half menace to Congress by appearing before the Capitol in large numbers, and had his commissary been of the right sort his idea in a measure might have materialized.

The true situation of the tariff bill in Washington, notwithstanding th... conflicting statements, is that the conferees are approaching a conclusion of their labors. It is understood as a matter of course that the conferees are anxious to agree on a bill that will pass both houses. They have been wide apart on coal, iron ore and sugar and at one time it is said wool loomed up to give trouble. In reference to this bill there is no mistaking the temper of the people at large. They want the bill passed and the question settled, come weal or woe.

A subscriber to the Gettysburg (Pa) Compiler writes to that paper calling attention to the summer of '54, forty years ago, when for three months no rain fell and the thermometer averaged 100 degrees for eight weeks, daily. There was enough rain to mature the wheat crop but there was scarcely any corn. Strange to say acorns were abundant that year and farmers fattened their hogs on on them.

A vigorous article from the interior of the county discussing the dead lock at Washington came too late for insertion this week. Correspondents should not forget that we are generally overwhelmed with matter Thursday evening and their favors to insure insertion should come earlier.

Corn Higher Than Wheat.

In Chicago last week September corn advanced 4½ cents to 49⅞ cents per bushel, and Monday advanced nearly 4 cents more. In New York the price of September corn at the close of business Saturday was 54½ cents; Monday 58 cents. Unfavorable crop reports stampeded the "shorts," with the result that September corn was ½ cent higher than September wheat. Cash No. 2 corn Monday in New York sold 4 cents higher than No. 2 red wheat. This alters the old state of affairs, when a bushel of wheat was held to be worth two bushel corn. Tuesday corn jumped to a still higher figure and wheat and oats began to advance in sympathy with the general movement. The effect of the rise will be the happy one of pinching the professional traders who have been trying to force the price down by selling corn they didn't have. After they have been compelled to buy enough to fill their contracts a relapse in prices will of course be expected until former prices will be more nearly approached. It remains to be seen whether the government crop reports will show excessive damage to Western corn. There seems to be a difference of opinion upon the point whether the recent hot wave, followed by frosts, has really ruined the corn crop.—Balto. Sun.

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone whether at home or travelling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with remedies which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in everyday life. For instance, Hood's Sarsaparilla as a general tonic, and to keep the blood pure and less liable to absorb the germs of disease, will be well nigh invaluable. Change of drinking water often causes serious trouble, especially if one has been used to spring water in the country. From a few drops to a teaspoonful of Hood's Sarsaparilla in a tumbler of water will prevent the water having any injurious effect. Hood's Vegetable Pills, as a cathartic, cause no discomfort; no disturbance no loss of sleep, but assist the digestive organs, so that satisfactory results are effected in a perfectly natural and regular manner.

It is important to keep the liver and kidneys in good condition. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for invigorating these organs.

Mr Gorman's Phenomenal Power.

According to some of the partisan journals Senator Gorman must be a man of extraordinary, not to say phenomenal, influence. He not only will not abate one jot of his demand for a tariff on coal and iron, but he autocratically snaps the whip over the heads of his Democratic associates, thus preventing them from carrying out the behests of the people. Indeed, we are assured that Senator Gorman is "the only man" who now stands in the way of tariff-reform legislation. If this be so, the Maryland Senator must be credited with a degree of power which has never before been exercised in the United States Senate by any single person. But, perhaps, it is not so.—Baltimore Herald.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE WAR BETWEEN CHINA AND JAPAN.—Capt. W. R. Bridgman, who had commanded the United States cruiser Balto., for the last two years, returned to Tacoma, Wash, on two months' leave of absence, having left the cruiser at Chemulpo, Corea, July 12. He regards the Oriental war as an unequal contest, with the odds greatly favoring Japan, which, he says, has a splendid navy and an army as well equipped as that of any European country. Japan, he thinks, is sure to win, unless China is given time to make war preparations on a gigantic scale. In his opinion the Japanese government has been endeavoring to force the war in order to detract attention from its internal political dissensions.

DROUGHTS IN THE WEST.—The cause of the extraordinary rise in corn is attributed to the prolonged droughts in the corn belt section. In Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and other Western States, from which the supply of corn chiefly comes, there has been no rain to assist in maturing the grain since the ears began to form. This condition has been aggravated within the past few days by hot, dry winds, which have swept over the corn belt inflicting further serious damage to the growing crop. Reports of this condition have been current in the last two weeks and has had their effect upon the quotations.

PAPAL ENCYCLICAL.—A papal encyclical letter addressed to the Brazilian bishops has been published at Rome. In it the Pope urges the bishops to educate and enlighten the people with all the means at their command. Ignorance, he says, is the cause of the evils of the day. The bishops ought to establish schools wherever there are priests to direct them. The priests sent out from the American College, in Rome, the Pope says, are imbued with the proper spirit in the cause of educating the people, and will give valuable aid whenever so placed as to be able to take part in the work.

SALE OF CAR HORSES.—A hundred horses owned by the Baltimore Traction Company sold at auction by Matthews & Kirkland Wednesday, averaged $39 each. Some of the animals sold as low as $20, while one brought $127.

LADIES: By special request from patients at a distance, who can not personally consult me, and being unable to answer the many correspondents, and furnish at short notice the Favorite Prescription, as used by me during a practice of twenty-five years, have consented to prepare and supply to you this unrivaled remedy for Female Irregularities. The climax of medical chemistry attained in Dr. Burkhard's Periodical Pills, being six degrees stronger than any known medicine, yet so mild that the feeblest can take them with perfect security; yet so powerful in their effects that they can be safely called a Never-Failing Regulator. Each box contains fifty pills, with full directions enclosed. Price, Five Dollars per box. Sold by druggists or sent by mail upon receipt of price. Refuse all patent medicines. Take only the prepared prescription of a physician in practice. Dr. M. Curby Burkhard, the reliable specialist, Office, 102 Park Avenue, Baltimore, ... reference.
